HP ZCENTRAL REMOTE BOOST + TERADICI CAS SUBSCRIPTION OFFER ANNOUNCEMENT FAQ

Q: What is the future plan for HP ZCentral software and Teradici CAS (Cloud Access Software)?

HP's remote services and solutions, tailored for hybrid work, will soon be enhanced with a single 1-year subscription offer of Teradici CAS and HP ZCentral Remote Boost. Get the best of both with the flexibility to use the right software suite to tackle graphics or compute intensive projects from anywhere. Teams will be able to securely access the cloud, virtual machines or localized workstations from most PCs, thin clients, Chromebooks, or tablets, for fast responsiveness and high-definition image quality, even with film editing and big data visualizations. In addition, you'll be able to seamlessly manage connections from anywhere with IT management software, included in the subscription as a limited-time offer. The new Teradici CAS and HP ZCentral Remote boost subscription is planned to be available for purchase by the end of calendar year 2021.

Q: Can I use Teradici CAS Manager as my broker for HP Central Remote Boost connections?

No, we recommend using HP ZCentral Connect to manage HP ZCentral Remote Boost connections, and Teradici CAS Manager for Teradici CAS connections.

Q: How long will support continue for current customers of HP ZCentral Remote Boost and HP ZCentral Connect?

Support has not changed for HP ZCentral Remote Boost and HP ZCentral Connect products. At a minimum, the software will be supported until the end of your support agreement.

Q: I purchased HP ZCentral Remote Boost recently, can I also use Teradici CAS for free?

Teradici CAS is only available with a combined subscription to Teradici CAS and HP ZCentral Remote Boost. HP ZCentral Remote Boost licenses will not provide access to Teradici CAS.
